Description: Route starting in Monnaber ( www.monnaber.com ) that visits the most important villages on the “flat and quiet areas” on the center of the island. The route across a big zone of natural vegetation (Carretera de ses Comunes), between Son Serra and Petra. Then, you will visit Petra, one of the most popular coffee breaks for the international cyclists (Plaça des Brollador). On the square, is usual see more than 100 cyclists enjoying the sun, and you can buy some clothes on a bike shop (Rapha, Assos, ...). Before the coffee you can climb to the Puig de Bonany (the biggest climb of the route), and visit the small church on the top.

Then, you will visit Sineu (if you ride this route on Wednesdays there are the most popular market of the island) and Llubí. Past Llubí you will arrive to Buger. If you follow the track you will climb an steep half kilometer, but if you are tired you can continue on the main road and you will arrive on the same point.

Climbs:

- Puig Bonany: 3.7kms at 5%
- Buger: 0.5km very steep
- Ullaró: 0.5km very steep

Coffee break: Petra is the best way for a coffee or a breakfast. On the square (Plaça des Brollador) you will find a lot of restaurants with bicycle parking. The most popular are Ca Na Bel and Es Brollador.

Another nice coffee break on the route is Sineu . Is a very old village with a lot of history, good restaurants and monuments.

Where to cut: You can skip the Bonany climb (the route will be around -10k), go directly from Petra to Sineu (skip Sant Joan -5k).

How to follow the route: You can buy a map in the hotel Monnaber nou or in the online bicycles booking and follow the route. Other option (and the best) is rent a GPS with the bicycles and put in the file Garmin // NewFiles the GPX file with route with your PC and reset the GPS.
